

FIRST SERVICE HELD IN INGRAM CHURCH

Congregationalists Occupy
Most Unique House of Worship in Washington.

BUILDING CONTAINS FINE GYMNASIUM

Edifice to Be Dedicated to Promoting Social and Physical Welfare, as Well as Spiritual.

A new tabernacle to Christian service, at Tenth street and Massachusetts avenue northeast, was occupied this morning for the first time by the members of the Ingram Memorial Congregational Church.

The new church is one of the most unique Christian service structures in the city. In addition to the large auditorium, the building contains a pool and billiard room, bowling alley, swimming pool, shower baths, and a thoroughly equipped gymnasium. The edifice is in the design of an ancient Greek temple, in the form of a Greek cross. It is constructed of steel, concrete, and cement bricks.

The church is dedicated to the memory of a schoolboy, John W. Frizzell, who was the first pastor of the congregation, and was built entirely through his efforts and those of O. H. Ingram, a former member of Congress, who sent Dr. Frizzell his personal check for $45,000.

At the service this morning, Dr. Frizzell spoke briefly of the history of the church. He was accompanied to the altar by Mr. Ingram.

The dedicatory exercises will be held on May 12, 13, 14, and 15. The subjects for discussion on these four evenings form a practical prospectus of the work planned by the congregation. Thursday night the church will be dedicated to "the physical and social welfare of the people." Friday night to "patriotism and civic welfare." Saturday night to "the physical and social welfare of the people." Sunday to "a broader evangel and education."

The Rev. Dr. John W. Frizzell, the man whom the members of the church declare deserves all the credit for the erection of the new building, is a Canadian who, as he expresses it, "is the best kind of an American citizen, because he is one through choice, while most of the people of this country couldn't help themselves."

He has been a citizen of the United States twenty-two years, during all of which time he has been in the ministry of the Congregational church. A graduate of the Toronto University, he has received five academic degrees. His former charges have been in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa.

The plans for the new building were drawn by Architect James H. Warner and the structure was erected by the Baltimore Ferro-Concrete Company.

TRICK, SAYS LORIMER, OF BRIBERY EXPOSE

Asserts Newspaper Instigated
White's $1,000 Vote
Confession.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1.—As a result of the sweeping charges of graft and corruption made against the forty-sixth general assembly by Charles A. White, a Democratic member from St. Clair county, culminating in the confession that he received $1,000 as a bribe for voting for William Lorimer for United States Senator, State's Attorney Wayman will present to the Cook county special grand jury tomorrow a confession White made in the State's Attorney's office.

In this confession names and dates were given in every instance, dragging into the scandal politicians of high degree in both parties. Some were named as having guilty knowledge of the situation; others as active participants in the wholesale grafting.

Governor Deneen is considering the advisability of calling a special session of the Illinois Legislature to sift the charges.

Attorney General Stead has promised State's Attorney Wayman that the State legal department will do all in its power to assist in prosecutions in case indictments are found.

Will Indict White.

State's Attorney Burke, of Sangamon county, has issued subpoenas for White to appear before the grand jury at Springfield, and says if White confesses he accepted a bribe he will be indicted and prosecuted.

As the alleged bribery conspiracy originated in Sangamon county and reached its climax in Cook county with the payment of the largest installment of White's corruption "fee," the criminal courts of both counties have jurisdiction to inflict punishment.

Senator Lorimer's Statement.

Senator Lorimer has issued the following statement:

"The White statement is absolutely false from start to finish. It is a lie on the face of it."

"What is the matter with White is beyond me. What is the matter with the people behind him—the Chicago Tribune—is easier to tell. They are trying, by deliberate lying, to wreck the financial institutions which I am known to be starting. It is an old game with these people."

"For twenty years the Tribune has imagined that it could ruin me, not only personally and what is the matter with the people behind him—the Chicago Tribune—is easier to tell. They are trying, by deliberate lying, to wreck the financial institutions which I am known to be starting. It is an old game with these people."

Met White Casually.

"As to White, I never had any but casual meetings with him. As it happens, I never saw him alone. In general, his story is so impossible that its falsehood is apparent at a glance."

Anybody who was in Springfield during the Senatorial campaign, or is at all familiar with Springfield affairs, would know in a minute that it could not be true. Such fantastic things don't happen. If you ask me why White tells this impossible story, I can't tell you. Some time ago in Washington, I got a letter from him, saying he was going to write a story of his life in the legislature. He said he had written 20,000 words, for which he had had an offer of $25,000. As that would mean $500,000, I concluded the man was crazy. My secretary suggested that the letter was a blackmail letter. I did not believe it at the time. Now I can see it more clearly.

"But I just sent White a reply to this effect: That I was glad he was doing so well."

"I might say here that a little before I received this letter I had been told that White was very poor and needed work, and that I asked some friends to get employment for him, as the man had voted for me. However, he never appeared to take the place which was open for him."

"The trick is so much a newspaper trick that I can hardly think White did it. I am confident that the people in the Tribune office, who made it an object for him to sign the article, supplied him with the crooked falsehood."

"Incidentally, after reading the dime novel story printed in the Tribune comparing it with the letter he wrote to me, I can say that White had about as much to do with writing the Tribune story as if he had never been born."

"In conclusion, I would say that the Tribune's article and purpose should be plain to anybody who notices that White's pack of lies was printed next to the announcement that I was to be president of two banks that I am organizing."

SWOPE CASE JUDGE SEEKS PRECEDENT

May Grant Request of Hyde's Chemists to Examine Viscera.

KANSAS CITY, May 1.—Judge Lathrop spent most of today in the law library consulting Missouri supreme court decisions to find some precedent to justify his ordering parts of Colonel Swope's viscera delivered to chemists employed by Dr. B. C. Hyde.

Hyde's lawyers claim if they are allowed to analyze the viscera they can disprove the charge that the millionaire was murdered with poison by Hyde. Judge Lathrop is in doubt whether the defense is entitled to any portion of the body for analysis. If he can find a case supporting such action he will enter the order.

Before his testimony was interrupted, Dr. Hektorn stated that he believed Thomas H. and Crisman Swope both died of some paralyzing poison or combination of poisons.

TO ASSIST PRESIDENT.

BALTIMORE, May 1.—President Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, has announced that H. B. Voorhees has been appointed an additional assistant to the president, with offices in Baltimore, beginning today.
